EXCITING POOL.

'Cycle Club's Tournament Creating Much Interest-The Score.

The pool tournament now being conducted by the 'Cycle club at its rooms on North Church street is exciting street, were at Uniondale yesterday nuch interest. Crowds surround the tables every night and nothing but the best feeling provails while games are is confined to her home with illness, being won and lost. In only one in Rev. Father Malone, assistant priest stance has a higher class man been defeated by one in a lower class.

One peculiar feature of the score as it stands now is that only one player has the distinction of having won and lost games. All the others have either won or lost all the games they have played. The winners and number of games are: George James, 1; Dr. Day, l; R. Marshall, I; G. Singer, 2; E. Roberts, 2; H. VanDermark, 2; VanGelder, 1; Johnson, 2; Frederick Heyerly, 1; oseph Gilhool, 1; Harry Wright, 1 Harry Harrison, 1.

Losers of games are: Dr. Baker, 1; V. Manners, 2; F. Derby, 1; R. Hamps ton, 1; F. Moon, 2; F. Wolcott, 2; H. Briggs, 1; George Paul, 1; F. Carpenter, 1: Isaac Singer, 1; Joseph Gilhool, 1; Lewis Davis, 1; Julius Spaeth, 1. Joseph Gilhool is the player who has lost a game and won one. Three defeats force a player from the contest.
